We are American watchmakers. For 165 years, we have been inspired by the dreams, aspirations and promise of our country. We democratized timepieces with the first clock any working family could afford, and helped the trains run on time to settle the West with our Dollar Pocket Watch. Now, we brought our craft home to the ancestral heart of American watchmaking in Connecticut. Our watchmakers dusted off old tools and created new techniques to craft small batches of American-made watches daily. Each watch is forged with American raw materials, our legacy and a high-quality Swiss movement. The craftsmanship in every detail captures the American spirit, ingenuity and beauty that inspires us every day.
OPERATING INSTRUCTIONS

To start your watch, press the crown to the case. To set the time, pull the crown out two clicks and rotate to adjust the time. If the date changes when the hour hand passes 12 o’clock, the watch is set to AM hours. When the time is correct, return the crown to the original position. To set the date, pull the crown out one click, then rotate the crown to the desired date. When the date is correct, return the crown to the original case. The watch must remain against the case for effective water resistance.

Each American Documents watch we make is water resistant to at least 30 meters. The watch will resist water under most normal conditions, up to the pressure you would find 30 meters below the surface of still water. The crown must remain against the case for effective water resistance.

The American Documents watch battery will last up to 40 months with normal use. To conserve the battery, pull the crown out to stop the movement when storing the watch for extended periods of time. We recommend a trained retailer or jeweler perform any battery changes. Please do not dispose of the battery in fire, do not attempt to recharge, and always keep loose batteries away from children.
